Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing on behalf of the Institute of Wellbeing Bangladesh (IWB) to extend our heartfelt gratitude for the invitation to the World Social Forum 2024. This year's forum aimed to create a world where environmental development does not lead to degradation under capitalism but rather prioritizes human rights, social justice, and environmental well-being.

The vibrant and engaging atmosphere of the conference was enhanced by various activities, including discussions, dialogues, and forum sessions. We greatly appreciated the diverse and inclusive nature of the event, bringing together individuals from different nationalities, ethnic groups, castes, genders, and physical abilities. Your commitment to ensuring the full participation of all attendees is commendable and noteworthy.

We would like to express our special thanks to those who provided support during the conference. The organizing committee's efforts in arranging an accessible hotel room for our visually impaired and wheelchair-using participants, along with the presence of a guide for our colleagues with disabilities, did not go unnoticed.

The unforgettable hospitality and generosity extended to us during the conference left a lasting impression. The experience was truly enlightening, and we are committed to carrying forward the valuable messages articulated during the sessions. We express our sincere appreciation for inviting the Institute of Wellbeing Bangladesh to the World Social Forum 2024 and eagerly anticipate future collaborations with the World Social Forum.

Thank you once again for this enriching opportunity.

Sincerely,

Mahamudul Hasan
Communication Officer
